

The Woodlands High School Baseball wins TASO JV Championship - Varsity to play in the TASO Championship at Minute Maid Park!

A team comprised of juniors and sophomores from The Woodlands High School baseball class went 6-0 to win the 2011 Houston TASO sub-varsity tournament! The team successfully eliminated Atascosita, Friendswood, Ft. Bend-Austin, Langham Creek, and Clear Creek before defeating Seven Lakes in the championship game at The University of Houston on Sunday, September 11, 2011. Congratulations on a successful tournament and for bringing the championship to TWHS!

The same weekend, in the Varsity tournament. The Woodlands High School baseball class went 5-1 to win the semi-finals and earn a trip to play in the championship game at Minute Maid Park. The Championship Game will be held on Saturday, October 1, 2011 at 9:00 am. Come out and support The Woodlands High School as they take on Cy-Ranch High School at Minute Maid Park. Tickets will be on sale at the ballpark - $7 for adults, $5 for children.

